MURDER IN PLAN LAWS JAPANESE TO BENEFIT COLONY

Bitter Feud Between S. Yoshida and G. Tominaga Ends in Midnight Killing

The Latter, With Revolver in Hand, Caught by Policeman
Smith in Doorway

BITTER feeling between in which the Alameda County Tax Association has been diligently engaged for approximately two years for the purpose of introducing changes in the systems of county and city government now in operation that will guarantee efficiency and economy in the future administration of their affairs through the agency of charters conferring greater and more independent powers to Alameda county and the incorporated municipalities and than the state constitution now allows, the legislature committee of the association has prepared an amendment to Section 6 of Article XI of the constitution relating to municipal corporations which was introduced in the assembly by Assemblyman William C. Clark on March 17.

The committee has likewise prepared amendments to a resolution introduced in the senate February 3 by Senator Broome, amending Section 7 of Article XI so as to conform with the Clark resolution.

If these resolutions are adopted by the legislature for submission to the people and in turn adopted by them, the constitution as amended will make possible the framing of a county charter for Alameda county and altering the several municipal charters whereby an efficient and economical community of interests can be brought about by the transfer of the county government to the control of the county government and the municipal affairs at present involve the employment of municipal officers duplicating county officers to perform the same functions, cover precisely the same field of action and produce the same results, and yet reserve to each municipality its present anatomy and absolute control over all other municipal affairs in which it alone is concerned.

The legislative committee consists of Harrison S. Robinson, chairman; Robert M. Fitzgerald, Charles E. Snook, ex-Mayor E. K. Taylor of Alameda and Professor William Carey Jones of the state university.

SUBMIT REPORT.

Following is the report the committee has submitted to the charter committee of the Tax Association:

"Gentlemen: Your committee on legislation recommends that in order to effect a condition of the law that will make possible the county and city government changes toward which the Tax Association is working, the association systematically urges the passage of Constitutional Amendment No. 81, proposed by Mr. William C. Clark. A copy of the proposed amendment is annexed to this report.

"Our arguments as to the passage of this amendment are:

Man Found Unconscious in Gutter Tells of Robbery and Assault.

Michael Ehrman, 518 Broadway, was found lying unconscious in the gutter in Castro street, between Nineteenth and Twenty-first, at an early hour this morning, and on being received at the Receiving Hospital he gave an account of having been held up and robbed of jewelry and coins valued at $233 by two men who beat him.

R. H. Wade, 2024 Brush street, was on his way home at late hour last night when he saw Ehrman lying in the gutter. There was blood about the eyes and about face, and several places showed where he had been struck with some blunt implement in the street, where the body lay, were marks as of a scuffle having taken place there.

Government Seizes Smuggled Opium

Confiscation Worth About $4000
Found Under Interpreter's Stairway.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—Successful smuggling has reduced the price of opium in Chinatown from $55 for a five-ounce can to $20. The idea of increased importation was foisted yesterday when customs agents seized thirty-eight tins and twenty-one bladders valued at between $2000 and $5000 under a stairway leading to rooms of Ching Foo, an interpreter employed on the docks of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. Customs agents admit they are mystified.

BILL TO AID HOTEL IS FAVORED

Important Oakland Enterprise Receives Support From State Legislators

Hearing on Claremont Hotel
Dry Zone Bill Is Scheduled for Thursday

SACRAMENTO, March 24.—The first public hearing on Assemblyman Ferguson's bill, No. 1620, which is designed primarily to extend the privilege of serving liquor to guests at the Hotel Claremont, Oakland, a $1,500,000 investment, now nearing completion, will be held before the Assembly committee on public morals next Thursday. Edward Engs, representing the Hotel Claremont interests, is stated to speak before the committee on behalf of the bill. Legislative action is required on the measure because through an error in the survey the structure was erected 178 feet within the one-mile dry zone about the State University at Berkeley.

Senator Tyrrell, chairman of the Alameda county legislative delegation, went squarely on record yesterday as being in favor of extending the privilege to the hotel. He stated that he believed that at least nine of the twelve members of the delegation would vote and work for the measure.

He feels, however, that certain modifications will be necessary to secure its passage, although the sentiment among the legislators seems to be growing daily that such a valuable asset to the State as the Hotel Claremont promises to become should be protected.

The condition that exists in prohibition localities in Southern California, where tourist hotels are situated, is being cited constantly as argument in favor of lifting the Hotel Claremont from under the "dry zone" ban about the university.

HOTEL ASSOCIATION SUPPORTER.

While not on record, it is understood that the members of the State Hotel Men's Association, who cater to tourist patronage, are urging legislators to vote for the Ferguson bill.

An active member of the Hotel Men's Association, who is the reporter on other legislative matters, stated yesterday that municipal and county officials in Southern California had been forced to the conclusion, through business conditions, that the tourist hotels, whether located in "dry" localities or not, had to be protected for the general welfare and that where it had become necessary practically every municipality or locality had made special provisions or adopted regulations to permit the serving of liquor to guests in the hotels.

CIVIC BODIES HELP.

Alameda county legislators who are interested in protecting the Hotel Claremont solely as a business investment, but who have not committed themselves on the Ferguson bill, say they will make an effort to have a strong delegation from the Alameda County Chamber of Commerce and representatives from other civic and commercial organizations appear before the Assembly public morals committee.

Carlston is suffering from acute appendicitis. When he was operated upon it was found that his condition was very serious. This morning he is resting easily in the hospital. The physician in charge announces that the banker's condition today is exceedingly critical.

Carlston is one of the most popular business men in Oakland. Some years ago he came to this city to take charge of the Central National bank as manager, succeeding W. G. Palmanter, whose illness caused him to retire from active business. Prior to his coming to this city Carlston was president of the bank at Merced, where he was a successful business man. There is probably not a business man in Oakland who has more sincere friends than Joseph F. Carlston. Today hundreds of his friends are seeking information as to his condition.

Joseph F. Carlston, president of the Central National and Savings banks of this city, is critically ill at Providence hospital as a result of an operation for acute appendicitis, performed yesterday at noon.

Carlston has not been well for several days and has been under the care of his physician, Dr. O. D. Hamlin. Yesterday his condition took a serious turn and it was found necessary to remove him from his home at 222 Thirteenth street to the hospital.

PATH OF STORM THROUGH CITY IS EIGHT MILES LONG

Death and Damage Over Big
Area Appalling; 250 Inhabitants
Injured; Property Loss
Estimated at Over $2,000,000

Fires Break Out in Wreckage of Buildings, Adding to Horrors of Disaster; State Militia Called Out by Governor to Prevent the Looting of Ruins

OMAHA, Neb., March 24.—More than 100 killed, twice that number badly injured and hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of property destroyed, briefly tell the story of the tornado which swept through Omaha and its suburbs at 6 o'clock last evening in an almost straight path from four to six blocks wide and eight miles long. It was by far the most appalling catastrophe that ever has visited Omaha.

An estimate at 8 o'clock this afternoon gives the death list from last night's storm at 140 with 240 injured.

Throughout the stricken districts the streets are filled with masses of debris from wrecked houses and uprooted trees and tangled electric wires, making street car service impossible, wagon and automobile travel almost so, and offering serious obstacles to pedestrians.

The list of known dead, although already a long one, is believed by those who have been over a good part of the devastated territory to be but a beginning.

Mayors of cities in all parts of the country have telegraphed offers of assistance.

COUNCIL BLUFFS STRICKEN.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, March 24.—Reports late today from Iowa indicate that the life and property loss there will be far greater than at first indicated. Meager reports from Mills county, immediately to the south of Pottawatomie, are that deaths are reported from every town in the county reached by telephone. A large number of towns are yet to be heard from.

Eastern Council Bluffs suffered heavily. Twelve or fifteen houses were leveled and a dozen deaths have been reported to date.

1500 HOUSES DESTROYED.

CHICAGO, March 24.—An official dispatch to the Burlington road from Omaha, received this afternoon, placed the number of buildings destroyed there at 1500, and states that six fires, four of them under control, were raging in Omaha as the report was filed.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has been advised by its Omaha office that the damage from the tornado will amount to more than $2,000,000.

MOBILIZE MILITIA.

OMAHA, March 24.—(By telephone to Lincoln).—After visiting the scene of the storm this morning Governor Moorehead issued orders for the mobilization of three companies of militia from outside the city. The local companies already are at work assisting the police and regular soldiers from Fort Crook, together with the city firemen, in the work of rescue. Three hundred regulars were called out.

BUILDINGS THROWN OPEN.

As soon as the enormity of the disaster was understood a relief fund was started. Within an hour thousands had been contributed. Public buildings were thrown open for the sufferers.

Never was the hospitality of the city given such an opportunity for effective work. Nearly every home within a dozen miles of the stricken district is filled with unfortunate.

All the hospitals in the three cities, Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs are crowded to capacity and in many of them, the halls and corridors are filled with convalescents.

The morgues and hospitals were besieged by friends and relatives of the dead and injured.

Although a line of soldiers and police was thrown around, the path of the storm soon after it had passed, much looting has been reported.

The first and main storm struck Ralston, three miles west of South Omaha, shortly before 6 o'clock yesterday evening and moved in a north-easterly direction through the city of Omaha, leaving a wide wake of death and destruction. Six miles long and from four to six blocks wide. The path of the storm lay just north of the business ness district and included two of the fashionable residence sections known as West Parham and Bemis Park. Practically all the buildings in this district were demolished.

According to the best available figures at least 30 were killed in the collapse of the Diamond Theater, a moving picture house.

Between 40 and 50 negroes were killed in the wreck of a pool hall nearby.

The well-defined path of the storm ended at Carter lake, near the Missouri river, north of the city.

To add to the horrors fire broke out in many of the wrecked buildings. The streets, littered with debris, were practically impassable for the fire apparatus and the fires burned themselves out except in instances where the flames were brought under control by volunteer "bucket brigades."

The second storm swept across the Missouri river about 6:20 p. m., doing considerable damage in Council Bluffs.

The Iowa dead are:

Council Bluffs—James R. Rice and wife; Margaret Rice, three months old; John Schulz and wife, Mrs. William Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson; three months old Johnson child missing; Mrs. Joseph Swinderman.

Glenwood—Mrs. Edward Lambert; Desha Lambert, 12 years old; Clyde Merritt, 22 years old; James McDonald and daughter-in-law.

After the passing of the storm nothing could be found at Glenwood of Mrs. Lambert. After five hours of searching the body was found a quarter of a mile from the house in a field. The property loss will be immense. Loss to farm buildings in Pottawattamie and Mills county alone will reach close to the million mark.

Fires Add to Havoc Wrought by Tornado

LINCOLN, March 24.—Property damage at Omaha will mount into hundreds of thousands.

The tornado swept in from the southwest and zigzagged to the northeast over the residence portion of the city, leaving in its wake destruction and carnage from four to six blocks wide. Fires sprang up all over this area so thickly that firemen were unable to respond to the many alarms and houses were allowed to burn to the ground.

The police who unable properly to protect the stricken district and soldiers from Fort Omaha were called out. The town was practically under martial law.

SUBURBS WIPE OUT.

The villages of Benson, Dundee and Florence, suburbs of Omaha, were practically wiped out. Only the fact that a heavy rain fell for half an hour saved the mass of wreckage and many dead bodies from being burned.

DEATH IN "MOVIE" THEATER.

A moving picture house at Twenty-fourth and Lake was destroyed. Ten dead and eight injured among the spectators have thus far been reported. Fifty persons were in the theater and it is feared that most of these are buried in the debris.

Bombs Pa., one of the prettiest residence districts in Omaha, was razed and fires dotted the park, completing the work of the tornado.

Among the places damaged was the Joslyn Castle. The roof was torn off and the trees and shrubbery uprooted.

Omaha's suburbs suffered heavily. The community of the Poor Clares at Twenty-fourth and Hamilton streets, was razed to the ground and a half-score or more were dead. East Omaha, lashed by the tail of the twister, reported houses demolished, but no lives lost.

COUNCIL BLUFFS SUFFERS.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, suffered nine dead, a score or more injured and great damage to property.

The worst damage was done and the largest toll of lives was exacted mitter. They insist that inasmuch as several thousand business men of Oakland and surrounding communities have petitioned for the passage of the measure that this support should be backed up by personal representation, so that the members of the committee may determine the exact interests behind the petition.

WOULD BENEFIT RANGES.

Assemblyman George Beck of Livermore, who, with Assemblyman W. C. Wall of Stockton, introduced a joint resolution last week memorializing Congress to open up the national ranges in Alameda and San Joaquin counties for the pasturing of sheep and cattle, stated yesterday that, despite favorable weather conditions, the measure would still be urged as an emergency act. The resolution passed the Assembly last Saturday and is expected to receive the approval of the Senate without quibbling. The resolution was introduced at the solicitation of sheep and cattle men, who declared that the long drought had caused a lack of feed on the ranges in the Livermore hills and that the stock was suffering. A restricted number of cattle and sheep are allowed to graze each year in the national forest reserves in the different sections of the State and the plea to be forwarded to Congress is to lift the limit entirely during such emergency.

JOINT TEACHERS' BILL.

Because Senator Boynton of Oroville has introduced a measure providing for teachers' pensions Senator Tyrrell of Oakland, who is also the author of similar prospective legislation, will probably confer with the Oroville solon tomorrow on the advisability of drafting a joint measure. The adoption of a joint bill in the Senate would also affect companion measures introduced in the Assembly. The bill measure was introduced in the lower house by Assemblyman Frank M. Smith of Oakland. Both proposed acts provided for a graduated scale of pensions and differ only in details of application and operation.

HEARING ON BANK BILL.

The substitute banking bill, over which Senator Tyrrell, as chairman of the committee on banking, and Senator Breed, as a member of that committee, have labored ceaselessly since the adjournment of the first half of the 1913 session of the legislature, together with Senators Thompson and Gates, is scheduled for review and public hearing late this afternoon. Representatives of the California Bankers' Association and others are here to go over the measure with the committee.

Senator Tyrrell introduced proposed measures during the first session which represented about 30 amendments to the State bank act. The amendments provided virtually for the NEED MEASURE.

The necessity for a weights and measures law in the State is recognized by every legislator, but a fight seems certain before a law is finally enacted.

In citing the essentials of a weights and measures law the officials would for the passage of such an act say that the two principal requirements are correct scales and the correct use of the scales.

NON-SALE OF DUCKS DOOMED.

The pet measure of the State fish and game committee against the non-sale of ducks—will not become a law according to a man on the fish and game committee in the legislature, who is credited with being in a position to know whereof he speaks.

While there has been no concerted effort against the non-sale of ducks in opposition to the strenuous lobbying of the Northwestern Pacific Company, if a mile from the local feed building. Each train was crowded and running about ten miles an hour at the time of the accident.

Although the force of the impact caused the electric motor to "climb" the steam engine until it stood at an angle of 30 degrees and several cars left the rails, the most serious injury reported was a dislocated finger and lacerated hand by Motorman Orth, in charge of the Fairfax train. Several passengers on both trains were severely shaken, and a number were cut by flying glass. Mrs. Emma McMullin of Petaluma was the only woman passenger of the electric—the more badly damaged of the trains—to report an injury. She sustained a bruised hip and lacerations of the arms and hands.

HANS AGAINST NON-SALE.

On the Senate fish and game committee, for instance, there are many who are in favor of letting a man or housewife buy a duck if they desire to pay the price. Senator George Hans, chairman of the committee, has been most strenuous in his stand in favor of the non-sale of ducks, while as a matter of fact he is opposed to it, although he has been compelled not to commit himself during public discussions on this question.

As evidence of Senator Hans' stand is a bill drawn by him which provides for the continual and close supervision of all market hunters in the State, requiring them to report weekly to the State fish and game commission of their kill and shipments during the week and to produce the receipts of shipment.

On the same committee are Finn, Baban, Gerdes, Regan, Bryant of San Francisco, Breed of Oakland, Lyon and Brown of Los Angeles, giving the large cities that will be most affected by the non-sale of ducks a goodly representation. The opponents of the bill assert that there is a possibility that the bill not even being acted upon favorably by the Senate committee.

TO DISPLAY BEAR FLAG.

ROCK AND FULTON SEEN IN TRAVESTY

Clever Vaudeville Stars Give Best of Work on New Orpheum Bill.

William Rock and Maud Fulton, in a mood that is happy even for those joyous persons, are giving Orpheum audiences a touch of high art travesty, this week. Rock and Fulton are Miss Bernhardt and not alleged as they never were. When it comes to them they make delightfully ridiculous what is near-sublime. Perfect burlesque is that which does not offend and there's naught but joy afoot when Miss Fulton becomes Bernhardt.

With Rock as Tellegen they do a scene from Nothing. Their stage settings are nothing, their costuming nothing and their French is less than that. But the ensemble is legitimate cause for more merriment than the Orpheum garden sprouts in a month. HAS SERIOUS SIDE.

It is travesty that must be considered in a serious vein, too, for like Bernhardt, with the latter's gestures, her voice and more than those, her stage gestures, her voice and, more than those, her stage features. The dancer discloses a knock and a talent that has not found perfect expression in anything she has done before.

The team retain their far-famed originality and grace. Their act is rhythmic, artistic and so well-conceived that a flaw could not be found with a stage manager's microscope.

PANTAGES' ACTS ARE VERY FUNNY

Noma Stetling and Billie Williams a Shriek, Which Almost Defies Description.

Comedy holds the center of the stage at the Pantages this week. Beginning with Barnes and West, a clever dancing-team who intersperse jokes with their intricate steps, the bill offers one laughing act after another, and rounds out with a sensational balancing act and two musical productions of more than ordinary merit.

The headliner is Singsano's Banda Roma, a unique musical organization, twenty Italian musicians play class and popular airs, and a dancing team depicting the deck of a ship in an Italian harbor. Attractive electrical effects are seen in the act. The conductor, who, by the way, can almost talk with his hands, directs the musicians in a pleasing program, beginning with "The Storm" from William Tell Outline and ending with a fantasy of American patriotic airs. A harpist renders an air on that instrument.

CLEVER ARTIST.

"Mr. Quick," cartoonist, wields colored chalk and depicts figures of interest in ludicrous positions. President Woodrow Wilson comes in for a pictorial jibe at the hands of the clever artist, as does also William Jennings Bryan, Jack London, Lester McCarty, the author, the second best sport page features and with with remarkable speed, and draws striking likenesses.

The Gray Trio offers a mélange of classical and popular music. Their final song, "I'm From Missouri," was encored several times yesterday afternoon.

Ralph De Ermay offers a striking act as an equilibrist and performs several difficult and sensational feats. Probably the most difficult is that with which he closes his act, when he slowly lifts himself from a recumbent position with his arms alone.

DEFIES DESCRIPTION.

Noma Stetling and Billie Williams present an act that is almost a continual laugh. Miss Williams' "Come, here, Billie," is impossible of description, but throws the audience into convulsions of laughter.

Charles Loder and Company present a farce comedy in which several screaming situations afford an admirable vehicle for the well-known comedian.

Comedy motion pictures round out the bill. The orchestra, under Director S. W. Rosebrook, renders "Aubade Primitivae" (Lacombe) as an overture.

A GREAT BENEFACTRESS

Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., bequeathed to posterity such a legacy of few women as are behind them. This woman, gifted with a knowledge of the medicinal virtues of roots and herbs, won lasting fame by her discovery of a priceless medicine to relieve women from their sufferings and thousands of American women now well and strong, claim they owe their health and happiness to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

RAIN SUBDUES BRIGHT EASTER SUNDAY PARADE

Worshippers Come in Carriages and Closed Autos, Garbed in Protecting Cravettes

While the farmers rubbed their hands with glee yesterday as the rain poured down, society went to church under umbrellas. Easter bonnets and finery were hidden under waterproofs, closed autos brought many fair wearers to the church doors and hurriedly whisked them away again after the services, and, while the churches presented a gay interior and the finery not seen on the streets was shown inside to its full advantage, still Easter lacked its usual parade of silks and feathers and the fair churchgoers were, as a result, present in probabilities in exact inverse ratio to the jocund farmers.

Despite the rain, the bloom and color of the Easter tide reigned within the churches. Easter lilies were never more beautiful, perhaps on account of the contrast of the flowers and greens against the gray of the outside world. The gloom of the rainy day was swept away on the wings of music, as organs pealed and the joyous strains of Easter hymns rang from every house of worship in the city. The spirit of the resurrection prevailed and the strains of the organs and voices in the choir lofts swept the worshippers away from the everyday world, even dark and gloomy as yesterday, on wings of triumph.

UMBRELLAS EVERYWHERE.

Outside the wind swirled the cold rain against the faces of pedestrians and the sidewalks shone with slippery polish as the little rivulets of rain ran down into the gutters. The costume of the outside was in mosses and mackintoshes, rubber overshoes and an umbrella, at least that is all the eye could see. But this was far from unbecoming. California women are always pretty. The mackintoshes, with a bit of white stock showing above and surmounted by portions of smiling faces seen under umbrellas were far from unattractive. But inside the churches these same mackintoshes peeled off as does the chrysalis from the butterfly, and from the drab cocoon issued untold beauty. Pale pink silks, blues, shimmering satins came forth—and hats! such hats! Birds of paradise, French plumes, creations in millinery, lace and ruffles filled the crowded auditoriums and the canopies of the hats were divested of their trimmings. Mere man was cast in the shade. His only use was to care for umbrellas and waterproofs.

BULGARIAN INVASION.

When the Bulgarians, storming the city, achieved victories they did, indeed, affect the fashions, and, while perhaps the Turkish strongholds are not under their control, at least they have captured Oakland, and the Easter finery revealed Bulgarian blouses, Bulgarian girdles and Bulgarian ribbon in profusion. These Bulgarian effects vie with the rainbow, or, perhaps, the solar spectrum. The blouse, as seen in paintings of peasants in the old world, is quite another thing when draped over the lovely woman. Colored Pompeian red with yellow sash draped loosely about the hips and surmounting a skirt that flared about the bottom, that Attalid takes about fourteen-inch steps, is the costume of the day. This was the display of the churches. The hat is small. Aigrettes of birds, paradise seem the principal fashions this year. Some were tilted, some were tilted, and hats such hats! Birds of paradise, French plumes, creations in millinery, lace and ruffles filled the crowded auditoriums and the canopies of the hats were divested of their trimmings. Mere man was cast in the shade. His only use was to care for umbrellas and waterproofs.

If you have a persistent, nagging bronchial cough beware of cough remedies. They are merely local in action, and if they do relieve it is in the moment that to do. What you require is a blood purifier, a circulating antibiotic that removes from the circulation the cold poison that the cold reflexes attack all weakness, insusceptible spots, and thus create local symptoms. The very best remedy known is Swift's Suro Specific. You will find it on sale in any drug store at $1.00 per bottle. It goes straight into the blood, becomes an internal blood bath, wonderfully increases the red corpuscles, cures all the local fever spots and irritations, increases appetite, you look fat and feel a wonderful sense of renewed strength. Hundreds of people worried beyond control at cough, pains in the chest, sore throat and constant expectoration of thick mucus have experienced the most wonderful change after using S. S. S. All doubt and apprehension is gone, those peculiar pains and aches vanish, there follows a period of most intense rejoicing to find that worst fears were based entirely upon a mistaken notion that cough and chest pains come from the lungs. PHOTO THEATER HAS FINE BILL

Some Remarkable Film Productions Keep Audience Spell-Bound.

What truly seemed a remarkable film production was "The Strength of Men," a dramatic portrayal in two acts by the Vitagraph Company that was presented to patrons of the Oakland Photo Theater yesterday. Replete with powerful situations, it depicted a terrific battle waged for the heart and hand of a beautiful girl. The story better tells it thus:

Marie, daughter of the foreman of a lumber camp, is loved by Jan La Rose and Clarry. Clarry, the two men quarrel over the girl. Jan discovers gold and stakes his claim. Clarry observes him in the act, and decides to steal the claim, staking it at his own. A race to the Recorder's office and back again follows. The men are overtaken by a racing forest fire and their race for gold becomes a fight for life. Jan is pinned beneath a falling tree and Clarry's sight is blinded by fire. Enemies then become friends, and both men finally reach safety. When Marie later decides between them, Jan is the man of her choice. Clarry congratulates his former rival, and admits that the most vital thing with him is to see Marie happy. The disputed claim is then jointly worked by the two, and the pass is all forgotten in the strength of brotherly love.

Arthur Johnson was seen in a most pleasing Lubin offering entitled "Friend John," the Edison Company presented "The Risen Soul of Jim Giant," an excellent and strong production showing how poverty and bad company had weakened a country lad who had drifted to the city and who finds the better man with him awakened through the innocent confidence of a little girl.

A comedy by the Vitagraph Company entitled "A Matter of Matrimony," completes the present program for today and tomorrow.

TAMANDRA, THE GYPSY.

Coming Wednesday and Thursday is a romantic Romany story by the Dublin Company in two reels entitled "Tamandra, the Gypsy." The chief characters are impulsive and true to the types that make tales, not vicious, but rather pitiful, and will doubtless prove one of the successes of the season.

Mary Fuller, the much-loved Edison star, will be featured in "Kathleen Mavourneen," while Flora Finch, the Vitagraph comedienne, will be seen in another mirth-provoker entitled "Love Laughs at Locksmiths."

URGES EXEMPTION OF STATE COLLEGES

Mills Committee Would Devote All Funds to Education of Youth.

Declaring that the resources of California colleges should be devoted in their entirety to the promotion of education, a committee of the Mills College faculty is urging exemption of "educational plants" of the State from taxation. The Mills College committee is composed of Luella Clay Carson, president; Helen N. Henry, registrar; Jane Gay Dodge, Clara L. Smith and Earl G. Linsley.

At present all the property of higher educational institutions in California is taxed the same as other property, with the exception of that held by the University of California, Stanford and Cogswell Polytechnic college. This State is declared to be the only one in the union which does not grant exception.

We meet this amendment to the State constitution has been introduced in the Legislature by Senator Gates of Los Angeles and is now before the revenue and taxation committee of the Senate and the constitutional amendments committee of the Assembly.

EXEMPTION FROM TAXES.

It reads:

"Any educational institution of collegiate grade within the State of California, not conducted for profit, shall hold exempt from taxation its grounds, not exceeding 160 acres, its buildings and equipment, bonds and other securities, used exclusively for the purpose of education."

Under the proposed enactment, if any educational institution holds lands or buildings which are not used for educational purposes, but are held as an investment or rented for profit, such real estate would not be exempt from taxation.

The leading institutions which would benefit by this change are Mills and St. Mary's colleges in Oakland, St. Ignatius in San Francisco, University of the Pacific at Santa Clara, for the northern part of the State. In the south there are the Universities of Southern California, Occidental college and St. Vincent's college in Los Angeles; Throop Polytechnic Institute in Pasadena; Whittier college in Whittier; Pomona college in Claremont and the University of Redlands at Redlands.

If you have a persistent, nagging bronchial cough beware of cough remedies. They are merely local in action, and if they do relieve it is in the moment that to do. What you require is a blood purifier, a circulating antibiotic that removes from the circulation the cold poison that the cold reflexes attack all weakness, insusceptible spots, and thus create local symptoms. ALAMEDA MAN IS
HURT AT POMONA

Captain Henry L. Halsey Run
Over by Heavily-Loaded Delivery Wagon.

ALAMEDA, March 24.—Run over by a heavily loaded wagon, suffering thereby a serious fracture of the skull and face and body lacerations and contusions, Captain Henry L. Halsey of 1535 St. Charles street, this city, narrowly escaped death at Pomona last Saturday. He is in a serious condition, with chances however, largely in favor of his recovery. Halsey, accompanied by his wife, was on a tour of the South and they were about to return to Los Angeles when the accident occurred.

According to information, Halsey had placed his satchel on a heavy dray for transportation to the depot. Arrived there he went to the wagon to get the grip and had placed one foot on the step of the wagon when the horses, frightened at an incoming train, ran away, dragging Halsey a distance of fifty feet. His foot then became freed from the wagon and the heavy wheel passed over his head and body, mauling him fearfully.

HUGE CROWDS ATTEND FIRST
SUNDAY OF IDORA SEASON

WHERE THE NEW SEASON HAS COMMENCED. IDORA OFFERS MANY NEW AND SENSATIONAL FEATURES.

Despite the threatening weather thousands of Oakland's pleasure seekers gathered yesterday at Idora Park at the initial Sunday entertainment of the 1913 season. Although Saturday was the day upon which the formal opening took place, yesterday's crowd eclipsed that of Saturday by many hundreds and not even the occasional downpours of rain throughout the day marred the gaiety of the scene.

In fact yesterday was as gay and carefree to the many hundreds who gathered at the park as last year in mid-season, and a remarkably successful season promises to greet the Mecca of the bay county pleasure seekers. Entertaining the park is new. In the afternoon the shrines were treated to an unusually well rendered musical program by the great Lamonaica European band. Included in this band are a number of Europe's most celebrated soloists and a number of selections were rendered which received much applause from the audience. In the evening the band also played.

There are many new amusement concessions. Merry-go-rounds, automobile races, moving picture show, joy wheel and a score of other interesting features added to the popularity of the park and proved a drawing card for the small boys and girls as well as "smile getters" from the older folk who also ventured to get aboard in many instances.

Just through the day's program in intervals enough to add spice to the day's outing were special events. The famous Carver diving horse, with a young miss upon his back, dives from the top of a 45-foot incline into a specially prepared tank filled with water. Numerous diving stunts were also features of the program. A number of fine attractions, such as the "old mill" also pleased.

ELECTRIC DISPLAY.

When the thousands of varicolored electric lights were lit a thousand "Ahs," "Ohs" and similar ejaculations went up from thousand throats, for when the "Park Beautiful" is bathed in its evening illumination it certainly can be classed as a wonderfully beautiful place.

ALAMEDA, March 24.—With a thrilling story of a battle with death in the stormy waters off Stewart's Point, Captain Victor Jacobson and First Mate Emil Anderson of the lost lumber schooner Albion, reached their home in this city last night. From Friday until yesterday the captain and mate stayed at Stewart's Point on the Sonoma county coast, where the Albion was a hopeless mass of battered wreckage within a few minutes after she struck on the sharp rocks which lie in the rough water at the base of the rocky coastline. There was barely time for the officers and crew of 18 men to get into the small boats before the Albion struck the rocks. A giant wave which tore loose the propeller and tail stabs left the schooner directly at the mercy of the rough sea. Dropping the anchors, Captain Jacobson ordered his men into the small boats. The crew barely reached the shore before the Albion was pounding to pieces.

Captain Jacobson and Mate Anderson both live at 501 Height avenue. The mate is a brother-in-law of Captain Jacobson. Mrs. Jacobson received word Saturday from H. A. Richardson, owner of the Albion, that her husband and brother would reach home last night. The shipwrecked men stayed from Stewart's Point to Chazadero and then boarded a train for Sausalito, reaching home about 9 o'clock.

MARGARET R. BALL

TO GIVE TREATMENT.

An application for dental treatment for a patient in Detention Home was made by Miss Beatrice McCullough. The grant was on the recommendation of Charles Mullins. Supervisor Foss will have charge of the case.

AS PRIVATE CITIZEN.

"Mr. Chairman," said Mayor Mott, "I appear here as a private citizen, representing some 35,000 others, to petition the calling of a water district election. In compliance with the state law I filed before you have a petition and affidavit of publication, which I hereby request you should consider. The petitions were withdrawn, readvise, and today the papers were finally submitted. The county clerk will check up the names, and next Monday the board will probably set the election date, as required by law."

PROTECTS RENEWAL.

Charging that the saloon operated by Edward Rodger at Irvington was a notorious place, and that personally he had seen intoxicated men served with liquor in the place, and had been the place open after midnight, Dr. L. G. Atkinson, president of Anderson's Military Academy at that place, protested at this morning's meeting of the Board of Supervisors the application for renewal of the liquor license.

Dr. Atkinson said that Rodger's small daughter was allowed in the place and that disgusting fights and brawls were frequent occurrences.

"I have seen liquor sold over this man's bar to intoxicated men," said Dr. Atkinson, "and I oppose this license."

Mr. Gulman Crocker declared the petition's signatures are not valid, as filed.

Supervisor Bridge moved that the matter be referred to the Board of Supervisors to order a survey and investigation.

ERRORS CORRECTED.

In the case of the liquor license of H. L. Scott, protested last week, County Surveyor P. A. Hayland reported on the petition of those qualified to sign the petition by reason of residing near the place. He stated that he was not given sufficient time to make a full investigation. The six names on the petition from the ten nearest residents to the saloon, according to the report, as far as made. He was granted a week to complete his work.

CORPORATION TAX LAW
DECISIONS HANDED DOWN

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—Superior Judge Sturtevant handed down three decisions today in connection with the corporation tax law. The court has already rendered something like seventy-five opinions in the instances sustaining the statute. Today he decided in favor of Miller & Lux and the Los Angeles and San Joaquin Land Company and against the San Joaquin and Kings River Canal and Irrigation Company in their suits against the state treasurer to recover money for taxes paid.

"The county clerks have always kept some of these fees," said Burpee. "Some courts have ratified this right and some have not. Now Mr. Cook is willing to pay the county these fees if the Supreme Court decides he should, and I have no doubt he will do so. Still, the status of limitations is running. I therefore ask permission to remand this case to Mr. Cook and one against his co-defendants to order the payment of this money for taxes paid.

HEART TRIBUNE'S PAGE for WOMEN HOME

SOCIETY

RS. FRANK COTTON HAVENS was the hostess yesterday at one of the most enjoyable "at home" given around the bay this season. It was a most delightful Sunday afternoon, planned along unusual lines, and Mrs. Havens' friends have to thank her for an Easter reception as unusual as it was charming.

Mrs. Havens sent out cards in honor of Miss Emma Thrusby, the well-known artist, and the most remarkable concert singer of our times. She is spending the early spring on the coast, and among her intimate friends are Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, Mrs. Isaac Requa and the hostess of yesterday, Mrs. Frank C. Havens.

Miss Thrusby's home in New York City is a center for distinguished people, her drawing room being very much in the nature of a salon, and one always meets many artists there. In the opera company now in San Francisco are many of Miss Thrusby's friends, and they were among the most warmly welcomed of Mrs. Havens' guests.

Among those who accepted her invitations was Madame Tetrazzini, the well-known coloratura singer, and ten members of Dippel's famous opera company were also present. Among them was Eleanor Cisneros, whose fine singing in Wagnerian roles has brought her fame. She is a countess as well as a singer, and her husband was with her yesterday at the reception. Never before on this side of the bay has there been an "at home" in which there were so many artists worth while—people who had achieved great things and had lifted themselves above the ordinary trend of activities. It is interesting to meet such people, and they lend an added charm to what was a most unique Easter afternoon.

The reception was notable also for the number of men present, many of whom have neither time nor inclination for the ordinary social round.

A stringed orchestra played delightful music during the afternoon, and elaborate refreshments were served in the artistic dining room, and on the verandas. The small tables were lovely studies in spring decorations, with daffodils making the center pieces. The tables looked out upon the beautiful canyon, and with the lovely view and the delightful music, the hour was ideal. The Eastern guests were charmed with the wonderful home, and with the reception, in many ways so delightfully planned.

Mary Garden is one of Miss Thrusby's great friends, but she was unable to be present at the reception because she had to sing "Trolls."

Mr. Frank Havens, as usual, joined his efforts to those of the hostess to make the many guests welcome at Wildwood, and a cordial abounding hospitality was the keynote of the afternoon.

Among those who assisted Mrs. Havens in receiving her guests were Mrs. Isaac Requa, Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mrs. Harry Maxwell, Mrs. Edward Engs, and a coterie of charming young girls.

Mrs. Havens was very exquisitely dressed. Her dress, fashioned along very fine lines, has color tones of lapis lazuli, most unusual. Her gowns are of rare beauty, of unusual distinction, and she was a very charming matron indeed receiving her guests—a modern woman in the heart of East Indian traditions, as expressed in the rarest works of art. Mrs. Wickham Havens wore an exceedingly handsome New York gown of charmeuse in the yellow tones so fashionable this year. It was beautifully designed and elaborately trimmed in rhinestones and with bands of the latter in her hair, she made a very stunning picture indeed.

Mrs. Requa was dignified and stately in a gown of black satin with rare point lace. Her costume was completed by a bird of paradise in her hair.

Mrs. Edward Engs was very handsome in a lovely gown in tones of white, and beautiful Mrs. Richard Partington was also in white, the color tone setting off her blonde type.

The young girls of the receiving party were all daintily dressed, adding charming color tones, and the enthusiasm of youth as well, to a bright scene.

Three young girls still in the school room, Miss Amy Long, Miss Sally Havens and Miss Sally Long, aided the older people to make the many guests of the day welcome.

"There is so much to enjoy in the Havens home that guests linger long there and it was dark yesterday before good-byes were said and the guests took their homeward way carrying memories of an unusual and delightful Easter afternoon.

Among the many guests at the reception were:

PURIM APPROPRIATELY CELEBRATED YESTERDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—Purim, the feast of the lots, a semi-holiday in the Jewish calendar, was celebrated yesterday in all the local synagogues with illustrated lectures and dancing by children. The festival is generally limited to the reading of the book of Esther, upon the story of which the celebration is based. Purim is more of a social than religious festival.

An illustrated lecture followed by the distribution of souvenirs booklets, was the program at the Temple Israel at California and Webster streets. Rabbi J. N. Neto delivered the lecture.

MEXICANS ATTACK MINING TOWN
FIRE RETURNED
BY FEDERAL
SOLDIERSGeneral Obregon Leads State
Troops in Assault Upon
Cananea.Colonel Moreno Defends Town
With Only 350 Federal Regulars.

NACO, Ariz., March 24.—State troops under General Obregon and Colonel Cabral attacked the American mining town of Cananea at 7 o'clock this morning, according to advices received here. The attack was made simultaneously from two directions with artillery and hand grenades.

The federal garrison of 350 men under Colonel Moreno was entrenched in an old smelting plant and without the first assault. Hostilities began at 7 o'clock with approximately 2000 workmen who were thrown out of work by the closing of the Cananea Consolidated Copper Company's plants, were preparing to engage in the struggle in behalf of the state troops.

The fighting continued into the afternoon. Federals returned the fire with spirit, but without perceptible advantage to either side. The idle miners remained under cover, although many of them were armed. The barracks and packing plant where the federals are fortified are of stone and are withstanding well the artillery and rifle fire of the constitutionalists.

MORENO IS BOLD.
Although the attackers numbered about 1000, Colonel Moreno holds fast the assault with only 350 federal regulars. All Americans were removed to places of safety, most of the foreign women and children having been sent to the border last week.SEVEN CHARGED WITH

EASTER FOUNDLING

HERE IS OAKLAND'S EASTER BABY, GUARDED CAREFULLY BY NURSE MISS ROSE BORDANARO.

Basket With Infant Left on West
Oakland Doorstep by Stranger

Cooing and blinking at the brightness of the after Lenten world into which she had come on Easter day, a 4½-pound Hazel Dorothy, this morning announced her intention in vigorous infantile fashion to find a home with some kind people where there is no little fairy or remnant at the West Oakland Home, where she had been brought last night by big-hearted policemen.

Hazel Dorothy first made herself known on the doorstep of Mrs. B. Lanyon, 1311 Chestnut street. At 6:30 Easter evening no one saw a person near the doorway although careful inquiry was made in the neighborhood and it was still daylight.

Mrs. B. Lanyon, who came to the door, saw a basket wrapped in brown paper. She brought it into the house, not knowing what it was. A sound came from within. "It must be a basket of kittens," was her thought, but when the cotton was rolled back, a wee innocent face was disclosed and a midge not tightly clutched a roughly written note which told the chronological events of the little foundling's short life as follows:

NOTE KELLS NAME.
"I am Hazel Dorothy, born at 4:30 a.m. Easter Sunday, March 23."

Patrolman Bergstrom was sent to investigate when Mrs. Lanyon called up the police and his report over the phone so interested Patrolman Pleasants that he requested Captain Frank Lynch to send him out on the detail. When Pleasants arrived the sight of the wide blue and wonder-filled eyes of the baby decided him.

"Her name will be Pleasants, if we don't find her parents," he said, and straightaway went to the telephone to ask his wife if he could bring home the baby. Mrs. Pleasants was at home and the baby girl was taken to the West Oakland Home, where Miss Rose Bordanaro, the nurse in the infant department, watches over her carefully.

Hazel Dorothy is the latest arrival.

It's good luck to be born on Easter," said Inspector Charles P. McCarthy. "I guess I'll take her. There aren't any at home."

"You'll have to take for over my dead body," declared Inspector Timothy Flynn.

"I think I'd like a little girl myself," commented Corporal John Murphy.

"Well, boys," exclaimed Prosecuting Attorney Ezra Decof, "We'll hold a raffle, the proceeds to go to the home."

On the threat of the Material Teamsters' Union to call a strike of all union city employees unless the teamsters employed by the park department should be raised the union rate of $6 a day the City Council this morning passed a resolution directed to the board of park directors giving it as the sense of the council that the teamsters should be paid the regular union rate. It was explained that the park department had not allowed sufficient appropriation in the salary fund to pay the regular wages.

PICKPOCKET'S VICTIM
DIDN'T REALIZE LOSS

Cries of "Stop thief!" and "There he goes!" aroused the interest of Henry Beck, 1131 Oak street, when he was riding on a Grove street car yesterday, and he watched H. H. Haron, 910 Eleventh street, worming his way through the car to get to the gate. By the time Haron arrived the thief had escaped and was disappearing round a corner.

Haron came back after a short run.

"Did you lose anything?" inquired Beck.

"No, but you did," responded Haron. "I saw that pickpocket take a purse from you and tried to call your attention, but he got away."

The thief had to leave his pocket and he found that a purse containing $75 had been stolen from him. The police have been notified and are investigating.

TWO SUBMARINE
BOATS NEARLY DONE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—Of the two submarine boats building for the United States navy at the Union Iron Works, H1 and H2 are 35 per cent completed and preparations are being made for a double launching of the deep sea destroyers early in May.

The first twin launching on the Pacific Coast and will be an event attended with much ceremony. A large number of officers of the navy will be present.

On Saturday, April 1, and 2, which have been in commission for almost a year, have surpassed the government's required tests. Submarines K3, K7 and K8 are more than 50 per cent completed.

There is no accomplishment that makes a person more sought after than to be able to play or sing well. In this day of music, it depends so much in the character of people we associate with it means more to the young man or young woman than just being able to have a good musical education.

Music will open the doors of the most exclusive homes. The musician has the entree to the best society and makes the acquaintance and forms friendships with those who will help to make a success of their life.

Don't overlook our child's musical education. It means as much to its future success as any other branch of education.

In column 18 in our classified pages you will find a list of competent music teachers whose charges are reasonable.

BASEBALL

SEASON WILL OPEN ONE WEEK FROM TOMORROW

SOX REMAIN HERE TODAY;
WATSONVILLE TOO WETNess Developing Into Dandy First Base man; Oaks Line-Up KnownAt midnight, in the training camp,
The Kid lay dreaming of the hour
When Bill, the veteran star at third,
Should tremble at his power.In dreams the sporting page he saw,
Embellished with his handsome jaw.
In dreams he had Cobb beat a mile—
The whole world hung upon his smile.
And he slept on.The season came, the Kid awoke;
The ball was tied outside.
He woke to hear the mugname croak:
"Go back to work, you rural joke;
Hike if you cannot ride."Hike till that old bonehead perspires;
Hike till you spot the old church spires;
Hike for the payroll of your sires—
Back to your native land!"

—Baseball Ballad No. 12.

(By BILLY FITZ.)

THE Oaks tied the Chicago White Sox yesterday morning at Grove street, but lost a close decision to the weather man after five innings of fairly interesting fusillading. When the rain clouds finally decided to land a hay-maker (get that one—it's good) both Lefty Moogridge and Tyler Carson.

The Sox shovelled over a brace of runs in the second inning, when Bodie Shill and completed the circuit on a triple from Kermit. The Silver grounders to the plate who would have caught Kermit at the plate had not the ball got away from Mitze.

Ness also scored a run for the Champs by singling to left, with Cox on third. Cox had reached the top of the preceding triple, sending Zacher in ahead with another run.

Christian made the other run for the Oaks by doubling to center and scoring on Bill Lear's single.

Nitez expects to announce the personnel of the Oaks very soon, through the team known for some time that the team will play in the new season.

The White Sox will be the one that will start the season. Scrim has made the first bag. That settles the two positions about which there was any question.

It makes the thought Art Guest will be retained as utility infielder, and Jess Becker will get the fielder birth, unless Abbott or Ward beat him out of it.

They may talk about the McCarrs and the Fourniers, and the like. The Tennesseans etc. are ad lib, but permit us to enter Mr. Jack Ness in the prize winning competition for first baseman.

Here's a youngster who has not yet extended himself, who makes difficult plays with an ease that makes the old timers look easy. He is no positively modest and has not lost his nerve to keep from coloring up like a girl, when the crowd gives him a hand. It was Ness who saved the Oaks from defeat yesterday morning in the last inning, when they were fighting to get out of the hole. The bases were down and there were two out when Fournier faced a terrific smash down towards first. It looked so clearly a hit that the crowd just groaned.

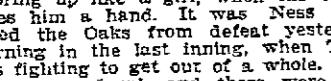

Ness got it. Oh, yes, he did. He not only knocked it down, but he flying Fournier to the bag for the third out.

He got a deservedly big hand.

The new grounds are still trials for soft because of the recent rains so that Mitze and his men will have to practice today.

Thursday afternoon will mark the christening of the new park, and it will be quite an event, as thousands will want to get their first glimpse of the new grounds. The second division of White Sox will be the honor team competing with the Oaks for the first victory in the new park.

One week from tomorrow afternoon the Coast League season opens. The Oaks have broken from the training camp at Livermore, and are now domiciled in Oakland. The Seals left for Boyce Springs today, but will break the fast Thursday afternoon to the post. Manager Del Howard announced that he would make public the personnel of the Seals tomorrow. McCarr will start the season at first, Wagner at second, Carson at short, and Fournier at third. McCarr will fill the utility role, Zacher in, and Mundroff are picked for certain lines in the field, with Hogan, Izzy Hoffman and Hap Smith to fight it out for the remaining berth and the utility role. This does not take care of Del Howard, who has indicated he will be the manager. That team would hardly stand for that, as Howard is far too valuable a player to be left out of the line-up.

Spencer, Schmidt and Sepulveda remain the catching crew so far, despite efforts to improve this department.

Eight pitchers will be brought back to San Francisco, and some of the others will be kept at Boyce, Henley, Delmont.

Arlett, Hughes, Thomas, Gilligan, Cade, and either Johnson or McCarr are likely to be in the first division.

The general impression is that Ewing will decide to use the old reliable Cack Henley against Soldier Carson for the opening game. McCredie has already announced that he intended to use the old Tiger, and Henley will probably be picked to go on the mound against him. Delhi has been showing great form, and if anybody supplants Henley it will be the flame-top.

Major Ralph has been invited to pitch the first ball at Recreation Park, and Major Mott will pitch the first ball on April 10, when the Oaks and Beavers play the first Thursday afternoon game on the local grounds.

Brick Devereaux, the German Schneffler of California diamond history, is to manage the Vallejo team in the Class D League, having come to terms yesterday with J. Cal Ewing, owner of the franchise. Brick was a member of the Oakland club from 1902 to 1909, and played outlaw baseball after that.

Josef Lhevinne says of the Steinway Piano

The great pianist, Josef Lhevinne, who played at the Scottish Rite Auditorium Sunday, and who will also play there this week, says of the Steinway Piano:

"In all my American tours I have used only the Steinway Piano—how else could I show greater appreciation of this wonderful instrument? The tone and touch so perfect that I can rely upon it for every requirement."

The Steinway is universally acknowledged as the Standard by which all Pianos are measured.

LES DITRICHSTEIN TO BE SEEN HERE IN 'THE CONCERT'

FINDS PROOF HOW WORLDS ARE MADE

Astronomer at Flagstaff Observatory Finds Nebula Consists of Star Dust.

CHICAGO, March 24.—Important details of recent discoveries concerning the nebular hypothesis of solar systems by Dr. V. D. Slipher, of the Lowell Observatory, Flagstaff, Ariz., were made known here tonight on the arrival of Professor Percival Lowell on his way to New York. The nebular theory of Laplace which in recent years has been somewhat discredited in certain astronomical quarters, received a strong corroborative according to a statement issued from observations at Flagstaff, which show that numerous nebulae shine by reflected light.

Observers at Lowell Observatory have established the fact that the nebula consist of clouds of star dust enveloped in gas.

"This is the first step in the evolution of a solar system," Professor Lowell's statement reads. The statement follows:

"It has been discovered that the nebula in the Pleiades is illuminated by reflected light of the neighboring stars and that this nebula is in reality a cloud of finely divided matter such as the investigation of Sir Norman Lockyer, Sir George Darwin and Professor Hugo Zeiller, led them to suppose might exist in space."

CROWD PREVENTS A
SUFFRAGE MEETING

Rowdy Youths Gather in London Armed With Missiles.

"The Concert," one of the season's most brilliant attractions, will be seen at the Macdonough theater for four evening performances and a Wednesday matinee, beginning tonight.

"The Concert" is a masterpiece of comedy, staged and presented under the personal direction of David Belasco. It is the medium which brings here for the first time Leo Ditrichstein, an actor of distinction.

In addition to being a player of great artistic skill, Ditrichstein is a playwright. He adapted "The Concert" for the American stage and will be judged, on his appearance here both as an actor and a dramatist when he appears in the role of a great musician.

Belasco has surrounded Ditrichstein with an excellent cast, the chief player being Isabel Irving.

FUND CAMPAIGN WILL BE RENEWED

Trinity Episcopal Community Center Requires $7500 More Toward $25,000 Fund.

With the season of Lent at a close the campaign to secure funds to build a community center at Trinity Episcopal church, Twenty-ninth street and Telegraph avenue, will be renewed with vigor, according to Rev. Clifton Macon, pastor.

Of the $25,000 which the workers want $17,500 has been secured. Recruits have volunteered for the new districts and those who have taken part feel assured that they are not going to find the last rally difficult. Wednesday, March 26, is the day set to begin the work.

EASTER SERVICES ARE HELD ON MOUNTAIN TOP

RIVERSIDE, March 24.—Three thousand people made a pilgrimage up the slopes of Mount Rubidoux before sunrise yesterday morning to witness one of the most impressive Easter services ever given in California.

On the rock-blank peak of this majestic mountain the "Throne of the Cross" and the "Cross of Glory" shone as the sun arose in the East. Half up to the summit the "vagabonds" issuing from the silver throats of twelve Indian maidens of the "Glorious Host" ascended to the sun a huge boulder. At 6:29 just as the sun arose, "The Holy City" issued from a cornet played by Gustav Hilversum.

The services were led by the Rev. L. D. Van Arn, pastor of the First Methodist church, the huge audience reciting the Lord's prayer in unison.

DINNER FOR AMUNDSEN.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—Captain Roald Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole, was the guest of honor at a dinner given by Norwegian Consul Henry Lund yesterday at the latter's home. Consul Lund will introduce Captain Amundsen to the audience which will attend his lecture at the Scottish Rite Auditorium.

REV. COWLEY-CARROLL GUARDED BY OFFICERS

ROSS, March 24.—Rev. Hubert Cowley-Carroll, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church, whose controversy with Mrs. J. K. Fields one of his parishioners, is the subject of an ecclesiastical inquiry by Bishop Nichols, presented what he termed a "personal offering" to the largest congregation ever attended the small and exclusive St. John's edifice.

As a precautionary measure against a possible visit from Mr. Fields, from whom, he says, he fears personal violence since their battle a month ago before the church altar, Rev. Mr. Carroll mentioned several officers in the vicinity of the building. The vestrymen of the church, present at the service, were also on the alert to prevent the woman gaining entrance to the meeting.

CENTENARIAN TELLS SECRET OF LONGEVITY

NEW YORK, March 24.—Charles Weller of Sparkhill, N. Y., celebrated the one hundred and second anniversary of his birth at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Craster, with whom he has resided for many years.

He was born in Berlin in 1811, and came to the United States in 1854. "Smoke mild tobacco, drink a little if you wish, don't worry, don't get excited, and you will live as long as I have," was the old man's cheery comment.

VISIT PARENTS IN PARIS.
PARIS, March 24.—The Countess Granard has arrived in Paris to spend Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills, who has pursued the same course year in the French capital.

The brightest day for every girl and every woman is the day when she looks well, feels well and is well. For every woman who does not enjoy these bright days of good health there is this cheering news. Your aching back, the dizziness, languor and weakness that leaves you trembling and breathless after any exertion, those attacks of faintness and headaches that make everything blurred, can be banished just as soon as you make up your mind to build up your blood.

A booklet, "Plain Talks to Women," will be sent free on request.

CARR MEASURE IS DECRIED BY SHOUP

Warning Sounded That Railroad Extension in State Will Stop.

LOS ANGELES, March 24.—Representatives of every electric railway company in the State are on their way to Sacramento to appear before the Senate committee tonight in an effort to show what will be the effect on railway extensions if Senator Carr's bill, No. 771, now up for consideration, becomes a law. It is claimed this bill will stop the opening of new territory through railway extensions.

Paul Shoup, president of the Pacific
Electric, sent the following telegram from
New York to be read before the Senate Committee:

"I am entirely convinced the bill will put an immediate stop to electric railway extensions in California, because money, which is in strong demand, cannot be secured for that form of investment. Even as conditions are now it is going to be quite difficult to proceed with our work, as public interest in electric railway investments is not increasing."
